Western Washington Pro-Life Update

September 24, 2008

*"Our media are the streets...Abortion will end when the People of God say so. Now is the time for people of every religious and political background to join together to stop the killing. When we come out on the streets, we always win. Fewer babies die and more consciences are stirred to action, starting with our own."
~ Fr. Frank Pavone, Speaking about 40 Days for Life, 9/24/08 ~*

COMMENTARY AND NEWS

THANK YOU to Diego and Kim Wendt, the volunteers, and everyone who participated in and/or made a donation to 4US. It was a great success! Approximately 1100 people rode, ran, or walked 4US in the rain, and over $100,000 was raised to "illuminate hope" for pregnant women in crisis. There are only 360 days until next year's event on September 19. We hope to see you there!

Trig's Breakthrough

By Michael Gerson

Washington Post, Wednesday, September 10, 2008; Page A15

In addition to Barack Obama making history as the first African American to be nominated for president and Sarah Palin taking her shotgun to the glass ceiling, there was a third civil rights barrier broken at the political conventions this year.

Trig Paxson Van Palin -- pronounced by his mother "beautiful" and "perfect" and applauded at center stage of the Republican convention -- smashed the chromosomal barrier. And it was all the more moving for the innocence and indifference of this 4-month-old civil rights leader. Read more...
