One of the world's leading experts on the international pro-life movement, Joseph Meaney speaks French, Spanish, and Italian fluently and is HLI's Director of International Coordination. His bachelors and masters degrees from the Catholic University of Dallas and the University of Texas Institute of Latin American Studies prepared him for an international career that has included lectures and investigative journalism missions on all continents and over 67 countries. Before becoming Director of HLI's International Division, Joseph helped found and served four years as Vice Director of HLI's Rome Office.

Joseph's recent talks include:

- "The Worldwide War against Baby Girls"
- "The Prophetic Nature of Humanae Vitae 40 years later"
- "What the Mexico City Policy Really Means", and
- "Modern Demography and the Globalization of the Birth Dearth."

Joseph will be moving to Rome and this will be one of the last opportunities to hear Joseph him speak for some years to come.

A free will offering will be collected to support the pro-life work of HLI.
